CHAPTER XXXV

OTOMIE'S FAREWELL.

Thus then did I accomplish the vengeance that I had sworn to my father. I would wreak upon Dr. Garcia, or rather thus did I witness the accomplishment for in the end he died terribly though not by my hand but by those of his own fears.

When Dr. Garcia was gone into the pit, I turned my steps homeward, or rather toward the ruined city which I could see beneath me for I had no home left.

It was a dreamless night as I came thither for the road was long and I grew weak. By the palace I met the Captain Diaz and some of his company and they lifted their bonnets to me as I went by for they had respect for my sorrows. Only Diaz spoke, saying:

"Is the murderer dead?"

I nodded and went on. I went on to our chamber for there I thought that I should find Otomie.

She sat in it all one cold and beautiful, as though she had been fashioned in marble.

I have buried him with the honors of his rank and his Christian faith, I said, answering it quite truly, though unasked.

It was well done. If you should see him no more, I set your heart at rest.

It is well, I answered, but my heart is broken already.

Is the murdered dead? she said presently in the very words of Diaz.

He is dead.

It will be in a few weeks.

Yet should I have slain him yourself? Our—I should say his—child?

I do not know. I left him and the Lord of Life to judge. I waited till it fell from his mouth and was quiet. Then I came to look at him. His sorrows upon his face had departed. He was at peace as I left him and looked.

Then I think you and I or me and the Lord of Life were watched over by Tezcatlipoca, who sent the Hand of Mictlan and set it upon the face of Garcia, so that he died. Yet I know not, for I was blind with tears.

I will have a fire made and burn the body, that you may be free to go hence, she said.

I will not go hence, I answered. I am weary of wandering. Here I will stay and rest.

Then I will go, she said, and rising she left the chamber.

Presently I heard the sound of a fire being made in the courtyard, and knew that she was burning the body of Garcia. Then I fell into a heavy sleep and dreamed that I was in the Land of Spirits and saw Otomie and Garcia and Marina and all those whom I had known on earth, and that Otomie and Marina were friends, and that Garcia was at peace with me, and I with him, and that Otomie was my wife and Marina was my sister, and that I was happy.

Then I awoke and found that it was true, and that I was happy, and that Otomie was my wife and Marina my sister, and that Garcia was at peace with me, and I with him.

Then I arose and went to the chamber of Otomie, and found that she was not there, and I looked for her in the palace, but could not find her, and I went to the temple, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the city, but could not find her, and I went to the pit of Garcia, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the land, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Tezcuco, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Tezcuco, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Chalco, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Chalco, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Xochimilco, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Xochimilco, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Zumpango, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Zumpango, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Texcoco, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Texcoco, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Xaltocan, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Xaltocan, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Chapultepec, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Chapultepec, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Tacuba, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Tacuba, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Tlahuac, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Tlahuac, but could not find her, and I went to the Lake of Tlalmanalco, but she was not there, and I looked for her in the Lake of Tlalmanalco

Rivocerus roosters and ruffians

MCKINLEY'S new shibboleth Protection Prosperity and Patriotism is good Republican doctrine

THE old Keystone State is capable of rolling up a majority of 300 000 for Hastings if every Republican does his duty

THE business that is most extensively carried on now is that of the highwaymen train robbers, burglars and sneak thieves Hard times does not affect such industries in the least

CANDIDATE SINGERLY said in his paper the Record in 1892 after Cleveland's election, No No No more rise wages ' Workmen, do you find the Democratic candidate for governor a true prophet ?

DO not fail to read the article from the Philadelphia Press in another column about the foreign markets the Democratic party are harping so much about. The Press places the matter before the country in an able and concise manner

HILL must have felt quite at home in Olean last Saturday night There were ten saloons in a row and every one of them had a picture of the effervescent David in the window. This clearly indicates where Hill's strength comes from

MR STRAUS, the Democratic candidate for Mayor of the city of New York, saw the handwriting on the wall and refused to accept the nomination, so Hugh Grant was placed on the ticket instead. The Tammany tiger is quite badly crippled

THE effervescent D B Hill is making an up hill fight in New York As he takes one step forward some of his previous statements or transactions confront him, and backward he goes in public opinion farther than he has advanced. He will find it difficult to ride two horses going in opposite directions.

THE voice of Hon. C. W Stone has always been heard in favor of protection and honest money He is always listened to with great respect and attention when he speaks in the House. Every man in the district should take pride in supporting our able representative. Vote for Stone and you will not regret it.

DEMOCRATIC journals that have been calamity howlers for over thirty years, present a very poor spectacle now by alleging that Republican newspapers are calamity howlers. Gentlemen, it undoubtedly comes tough to take your own medicine, but you gave it to the Republican party for over thirty years, so grin and bear it.

THE Immense Democratic mass meeting held at Kane last Tuesday did not exceed 250 and half of those present were Republicans. A gentleman who was present says it was the slimmest affair of the kind he ever attended. Although chairman Nash had sent posters announcing the meeting to every voting precinct in the county.

For argument's take, we will allow that the tariff is taken off from all manufactured goods and allowed to enter our ports free of all duty, and the ports of all foreign nations are open for the admission of all American manufactures. What is the consequence ? Will our condition be improved ? There is no getting away from the fact that our laboring men will have to accept the same wages that are paid in Europe and live upon the same scanty fare. Look at the laboring classes that come here every year from foreign lands See the style of dress and inquire upon what they live To those who have emigrated from Europe look back at the situation of affairs you were compelled to endure while there Would it improve your condition to go back to the same state of affairs ? If you take away the barriers of protection that this country has enjoyed and under which it has become the greatest nation in the world, what would be the consequence ? The laboring classes of this country would be brought to the same level as the poor underpaid laborers of Europe To those who have to work for their living do you wish to come to this ? Look the matter squarely in the face and don't let political blatherskites mislead you by the false statement that your condition will be improved by competing with the pauper labor of Europe All such men care about your welfare is to get your vote to boost them into office After that you can take care of yourself Let your better judgment prevail and do not listen any more to these theoretical free-traders. Practically it does not work in this country unless you wish to lower your condition

GOV MCKINLEY made a trip to New Orleans on Saturday and that night addressed 15 000 sugar rice and cotton planters of the Pelican State This is a new era in southern politics and means the breaking up of the solid south For years the southern idea has been anything in opposition to the north They were all right in their way of thinking but are gradually getting their eyes open and begin to see that the acts passed by the 53d congress are not conducive to the advancement of the industries of the south, hence the invitation to McKinley to address them on the question of protection

HENRY J COOPER a veteran of the war who had his leg amputated at the hip and who has been holding the position of elevator man at the Mint in Philadelphia for sixteen years was discharged on a three days notice without any reason assigned by Eugene Townsend the superintendent of the Mint Thus is a disabled veteran compelled to give place to an able bodied man The President's attention was called to the matter by General J J Wister but thus far nothing has been done to right the wrong that has been committed on this crippled veteran

A MONTGOMERY county farmer went into a store in Norristown last week and bought a suit of clothes After the bargain was made the storekeeper said ' There that is the cheapest suit of clothes you ever bought Oh no, said the farmer this suit cost 20 bushels of wheat I have never paid over 15 bushels of wheat for a suit of clothes before That farmer's vision is clear —Philadelphia Press

THE Democratic orators proclaimed in 1892 that there was no tin plate manufactured in the United States To make their word good they have taken the tariff off from tin, and the consequence is that all the tin manufactories are closing up Cleveland and tariff reform are doing wonders for the laboring men of this country

THE exports for the month of September 1893 were $72 000 000 for the month of September, 1894 $59,000 000 Only a falling off of thirteen million in one year under free trade laws This shows what success we will have in seeking a foriegn market under the Gorman bill

CONGRESSMAN Dalzell and Charles Emery Smith of the Philadelphia Press will address the Republicans of Lycoming county at Williamsport on Oct 27th

MR SINGERLY and party have cancelled their engagement in Bradford Can it be possible that the Democratic (?) boss of this county is responsible for this, in order that Messrs Singerly and Harrity may not find out the true state of affairs in the Democratic ranks of McKean county It looks very much like it to say the least.—Democrat

T D Nash, our county chairman, is thoroughly wide awake in the interest of the party. He was a pleasant caller at the Reporter office last Wednesday bringing as usual, his arms full of good Democratic doctrines. It does one good to talk with him He seems to impart to others a portion of the enthusiasm he feels And we believe, should disaster meet us next November it will not be owing to a want of attention nor energy on his part.—Reporter

What a striking similarity of opinion there is in the two Democratic journals of McKean county But it is only a parallel with the Democratic situation all over the country Democratic harmony this year resembles skim milk.

SOUND WORDS.

Bishop Ireland, on Monday night, gave the following sound words of advice

For myself I predict dismal failure to those who raise the cry of race or religion in this land I predict the death of the political party which makes use of sectarian hatred either to prop its own cause or to lower the cause of its opponents. Religious prejudice is a boomerang, which returns upon him who launches it. The cry of religious prejudice, unfortunately, has been raised, and in it there is often, I believe, more politics than religion it should be put down. American loyalty and fitness for office—there must even be, and these alone, the conditions which determine an American's vote In this matter, as in all other questions of American citizenship, the veteran soldiers will be first in the pathway of honor and duty.—Ex.

FREE LUMBER USEFUL.

Mike "Dinle, I do be afther hearin' that th' Dimycryt Congress an' President 'ave put timber an th' free list. Phwat did they do that for?"

Dinle "Begobs ol don't know, unless'it be that they cudn't get enough variety at home to make th' different plants in their pistfor-rums"—American Economist.

THE MYTHICAL FOREIGN MARKET.

As an excuse for their assault on the industries of this country, with the consequent panic, paralysis of trade, reduction in wages and shrinkage in business in one year to an amount exceeding $12,000,000,000, as shown by the bank clearings, the Democrats tell us that they are looking for foreign markets for our surplus products. When Mr Walker and the other slave owners put through Congress their tariff bill of 1846 their cry in the words of Mr Walker, was ' Remove from agriculture all restrictions and we will supply the world ' The Democratic party accepted the doctrine, passed the bill and what was the result ? The exports of breadstuffs fell off from $68,000 000 in 1847 to $21,000,000 in 1851. If it had not been for the fortunate discovery of gold in California and the wars and famines in Europe, the nation would have been bankrupted sooner than it was, but the Democrats had to pay 12 per cent. for money to run the government with until the Republicans came into power and passed the Morrill tariff bill

When the ex Confederates became numerous in Congress as the result of force and fraud during the Hayes administration, they started up another attack on the tariff, that time under the specious plea of free raw materials. This was to give us the markets of the world. Well we have had, in that respect, a great advantage over every other nation in free raw cotton, which we produce in abundance But instead of capturing the cotton market of the world we have not captured our own market. In 1878 the imports of cotton goods were $16 464 305 in value, and in 1893 notwithstanding the enormous reduction in prices the imports were $33 343 534 In other words, with free raw material and a so called "war tariff" we could not hold our own market Did we capture any foreign markets ? With the exception of an increase in Brazil and some countries with which we had reciprocity we fell behind We exported more cotton goods in 1880 than in any year since No clearer demonstration of the falsity of the free raw material cry should be needed

Hides are an alleged raw material and have been on the free list since 1872 But in the last nine years we have imported manufactures of leather to the amount of $111 140 000 and have exported to the amount of $98 207 000 In the last fiscal year we imported nearly 8 per cent more of leather manufactures than we exported With free raw material' and so alleged war tariff our manufacturers, owing to the higher wages paid, have not been able to hold our own market or to export as much in any one year as we imported It would be easy to extend this list and show what a humbug the free raw material cry is With a duty of 45 per cent on the iron industry has done much better in the way of increasing exports than either cotton or leather, another demonstration of the free raw material humbug Silk with free raw material is still another case in point

But the Democrats are now dropping that cry They refused to carry it out in the case of iron ore and coal because of southern opposition and now they go back again to free trade and the markets of the world or the slave owners tariff cry of 1846 Burdens like they neither learn nor forget Mr Wilson told the Brothers at the Lodge banquet that the Democrats were tearing down the protection fence put up to keep the foreigners out of the American market and that this was done to capture the markets of the world and the British laughed and applauded and winked at each other as well they might

Mr Edward Atkinson the eminent statistician and opponent of protection in Bradstreet's for September, 1890 produced facts and figures to show that our American home trade then amounted to $50 000 000 000 In 1892 there was an increase in bank clearings over those of 1880 of $7 852 000 328, and the increased railroad traffic and other things showed a home market that year of at least $60 000 000 000 The aggregate imports of all the countries in the world excluding our own were only about $6 000 000 000 So the Democrats propose to tear down the fences and let the foreigners in to share our $60 000 000 000 home market, while we transport our goods to distant lands and try to capture the small markets from the same persons with whom we are unable to compete at home Could there be greater idiocy ?

England has the Democratic system in perfection Is she capturing the markets of the world ? In 1890 her exports of British produce were $1 317 652 925 in value The next year they were $80 000 000 less in 1892 there was another decline of over $100 000 000 and in 1893 a decline of $45 000 000 making altogether a decline in exports of $225 171 695 in three years time But under the McKinley tariff the United States increased its exports to a much larger degree than those of Great Britain fell off From 1889 to 1892 our exports increased $287 876 773. And yet the system which brought about this condition of things must be destroyed and we go into competition with free trade Great Britain for foreign markets which she has been losing to the extent of $100 000 000 in a single year And what is more, she is losing her trade because Germany and other protective nations have been taking it from her

Could there be greater idiocy than the hunt for mythical foreign markets at the expense of our enormously valuable home market ? If there could be then it is of that kind shown by the Democrats in destroying the reciprocity treaties and thus abandoning the valuable foreign markets that we have gained under the McKinley act.

One important feature of this matter is that the McKinley act allowed a drawback of 99 per cent. on all dutiable articles imported for manufacturing for the foreign trade Consequently we had practical free trade under the McKinley act so far as capturing the foreign markets was concerned But we cannot capture them unless wages, which make up 95 per cent. of the cost of production, are reduced to the level of those paid by competing nations. That is what the Democratic party is after and nothing else —Press

WHICH CAN WE BELIEVE?

This bill proposes a suicidal policy when it seeks by its extreme protection to discard numerous reasonable tariff duties and then by import many industries said create a deficiency in securing revenues simply for the purpose of affording an opportunity or excuse for the substitution of an income tax. The substitution of internal direct taxes for customs house taxation means the reduction of the wages of American workmen to the European standards. It means the degradation of American labor, it means the deprivation to our workmen of the comforts and luxuries of life to which they have been accustomed —Senator Hill, April 16th.	It may be safely asserted that the new law will not operate so as to increase a single industry in the land, much less one of employment a single workingman, nor unduly stimulate over production on the one hand or exorbitant importations on the other The reductions are not deep enough to be unreasonable or extreme nor unjustifiable. They are so fair and moderate that in this country has any excuse whatever for reducing the wages of the employees If manufacturers cannot do it by means such as these some other reason or pretense than the present tariff law —Senator Hill, September 21, 1894. American Economist

The above presents two pictures of D. B Hill. Which is right? One or the other is wrong Can any honest man consistently vote for a man who is riding two horses going in different directions.

SINK OR SWIM.

Sink or swim live or I speak for this law die, survive or perish, the patient considers it calmly and will not vote for a fair trial to support this bill in its present shape —Senator Hill, June 11, 1894.	which is common fairness it is an illusion.—Senator Hill, September 25, 1894.

SYMPTOMS OF CHRONIC CATARRH

As Described by Dr. Hartman, one of the Greatest Authorities and Writers on Catarrh.

The symptoms of chronic catarrh vary according to the stage and exact location of the disease. The first stage of catarrh of the nose and head produces discharge from the nose, sneezing, pain in the eyes and forehead, weak, and sometimes watery dyes, occasionally loss of memory. In the last stage the discharge ceases, and dry, offensive scabs form in the nose, polypi growths sometimes form in one or both nostrils, and the pain in the head and eyes is much less. Unless something is done to prevent, the catarrh will follow the mucous membrane into the lungs, where it will be followed by cough, night sweats rapid loss of flesh, and the other dread symptoms of consumption.

Pe-ru-na is a specific for every case of catarrh, whether the disease is located in the lungs, kidneys or stomach The dose of Pe-ru-na should be a large tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime Women and some delicate men should begin with a teaspoonful, and slowly and gradually increase to the above full dose

Free books on chronic catarrh, la grippe, coughs, colds and consumption are being sent to any address by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus Ohio.

STANDS BY THE CONSTITUTION

The Democratic papers and speakers have seen fit to drag religion into politics in this campaign an act which should bring down upon it the most emphatic condemnation of liberty loving people. Religion or religious questions have no place in the politics of this country The Republican press and speakers have endeavored to keep this question out of the campaign, not because they are afraid to define their position, but because they recognize in it a dangerous menace to the peace of the country, and to bring it into politics is what might well be called criminal foolishness ' it can do no good and could do much harm The Republican party is a party of freedom, it has proved its loyalty to the constitution and its candidate for governor Levi P Morton sets the religious question out of this campaign and defines his position most clearly and emphatically in the following broad liberal all embracing American sentiment the words of a manly American man that should bring a blush of shame to the cheeks of the narrow minded one idea bigoted assassins who have sought to place him in a false light before the people of the Empire State Mr Morton says

'Under the constitution of the United States, as well as the organic law of this State, all citizens are placed on a footing of absolute equality before the law This proposition the supreme law of both recognize not only because it is obligatory as a statute but because I am in favor of the fullest freedom in the worship of Almighty God

The Republican party stood for the Constitution and Freedom" in 1861 and will stand for them against any foe —Olean Echo

BUSINESS REPORT

Cotton below 6 cents and wheat below 55 cents each lower than ever since present classifications were known with exports of gold instead of products at such prices in October are the salient features in business this week Distribution of goods to consumers goes on fairly with gains of nearly all points in comparison with last year but not yet at a rate to sustain the present volume of manufacturing production so that prices weaken a little The domestic trade is assured by railroad earnings in October 3 to 7 4 per cent less than in 1892 The payments through the principal clearing houses for the third week of October are 2 3 per cent. greater than last year, but 31 5 per cent. less than in 1892 The daily average for the month is 5 6 per cent larger than last year but 28 2 smaller than in 1892 With many features of encouragement, business has not yet answered expectations, and it is evident that the loss of part of the corn crop and the unnaturally low prices of other great staples affect the buying power of millions Dun

MUST MEET WELSH WAGES

Free Trade Tin Plate Workers Set the Pace for America.

W C Cromeyer presided at the Tin Plate Manufacturers' association and the Amalgamated Association and Tin Plate company has proposed a statement of the conditions surrounding the tin plate manufacture which they claim prevent the payment now of the Amalgamated Association wages to date prior to the operation of the new tariff He says the figures recently given by President M M Garland of the Amalgamated Association, do not cover the case

The cost of producing black plates—$2 81 as given by President Garland—he states is an impossibility under the union scale wages The cost at that figure would be 2½ cents per pound which Mr Cromeyer says is impossible at the present rate of wages The standard of weight he states is 108 pounds per box and not 112 pounds as stated by President Garland and the quotations are 108 2d per box of that weight or less than $2 50 instead of $2 70, according to President Garland This with the duty of $1 20 and the ocean freight makes the New York price of foreign plates $3 85 and President Garland's statement admits that the cost to American manufacturers is $3 40. Even admitting that the price of the foreign plate at New York is $4 10, as President Garland claimed and the American cost $3 90 the home manufacturers can have no margin when freights are taken into account

President Cromeyer presents a table of freight rates from Pittsburg to the leading cities in every section of the United States with the rates from the seaboard cities to the same points, showing that in every case the eastern distributing points of the foreign product have a material advantage over Pittsburg in the cost of shipment

President Cromeyer gives the following statement of wages paid here and in Wales Amalgamated Association wages—Rolling $4 20 heating $2 45, doubling $2 70 shearing $1 70. Welsh wages, per twenty boxes—for rolling, including catch ing $1 88 doubling $1 12, heating $1 05 shearing 44 cents. The house labor on Monmouth acts, in this country, is paid double the wages received by the Welsh workers.

The reductions proposed by the manufacturers are 20 per cent on rollers wages, and 25 on doublers and heaters leaving the rate for rolling $3.71 doubling $2 03, and heating $1 88, or almost 100 per cent higher than in Wales To the advantage of the foreign manufacturer by the low wages quoted above, the workers have given them another by recently conceding the addition of from 15 to 20 extra sheets of IC, 14x20, per box which is equivalent to a further reduction of 15 per cent on their already low rate of wages. President Cromeyer concludes his statement as follows

This is not the intention of the manufacturers to reduce wages unnecessarily but they desire to put forth every effort to firmly establish the tin plate industry in this country, and they are willing to keep their mills running at an unremunerative profit and await better times, but in doing so they must demand that that class of employes who receive by far the largest proportion of the earnings of the mill must participate in the losses which have been brought upon the American manufacturers and workmen by the unjust and discriminative legislation of the present congress."

THAT LONDON SPEECH.

Comment on the Remarks as Quoted from London Papers.

JUST WHAT MR. WILSON SAID.

He Prepared His Remarks in Advance and Gave a Copy to Each of the London Papers, So That There Could be No Mistake About What He Said to the Britishers That Wish Their Great Applause.

An editorial in the Philadelphia Press a few days ago on the subject of the speech made by Mr Wilson at London a few weeks ago is well worth the careful perusal of Pennsylvanians We present it herewith The Press said

The speech of Hon William L Wilson at the banquet given in his honor by the London Chamber of Commerce has naturally excited universal interest and been the theme of universal comment Outside of the Maine and other elections it remains the most striking and suggestive event relating to American politics since the adjournment of congress Next to President Cleveland Mr Wilson as the chairman of the ways and means committee, is the most conspicuous representative of Democratic policy and his London speech was the deliberate declaration in a great international forum of the spirit and purpose of his party

Mr Wilson spoke with careful preparation In a letter to the New York World of last Monday he says

The speech, which I made on that occasion (the London speech) was one of the few which I have carefully written out in advance so as to prevent falsification and garbling and was so far as I could make it a plain and full statement of the position of the tariff reformers of the United States

It was carefully written' and a plain and full statement of the position of the tariff reformers —so much settled upon the authority of Mr Wilson himself In another part of his letter he complains that the speech has been garbled in this country But that complaint cannot be against the authentic verbatim report printed in the London papers of Sept 28 doubtless furnished by himself from his carefully written copy That report as it appeared in the London Standard was reprinted in full in The Press of last Monday We have compared it with the complete and correct report of the London Times which is free before us at this moment and find that it is practically identical except that at one or two points The Standard report is somewhat abridged We shall make our quotations directly from The Times report which cannot be questioned

In an editorial article in its issue of Sept 29 the day following the speech The Times said the greater part of Mr Wilson's speech was a logical and telling argument in favor of free trade pure and simple After making this free trade argument and deserting from his standpoint the contest between the free traders and protectionists culminating in the passage of the Wilson Gorman bill Mr Wilson made this plain statement of the purpose that bill and of what it is intended shall do with

Such have been the results of the contest in which we have been engaged for the last twenty years or so, during which in the United States for the most part the south and the north have been united in the effort to reform this tariff by the removal of restrictions upon imports

It will be seen Mr Wilson's plain statement that the object of the bill and the one reform to the carrying out of which the efforts of its framers were directed was the removal of restrictions upon imports that is to say the reduction of the duties levied by the bill for the purpose of protection to American industries

Mr Wilson's plain statement that the object of the bill and the one reform to the carrying out of which the efforts of its framers were directed was the removal of restrictions upon imports that is to say the reduction of the duties levied by the bill for the purpose of protection to American industries is emphasized by the fact that the bill which he has just characterized as a measure of free trade pure and simple that Congress and the country have been asked to accept as a measure of free trade pure and simple that Congress and the country have been asked to accept as a measure of free trade pure and simple that Congress and the country have been asked to accept

—At the Opera House on Nov 15 will be given the finest concert without doubt ever arranged for an audience in our town Prof McIntyre will be assisted by Mr Wright the great violinist who has performed in the largest cities Mr and Mrs McIntyre will render several piano selections, and have also provided for vocal music on the program This concert will be a musical event in Smethport

—On Monday morning we visited the store of C A Anderson at Colegrove where we found the hustling proprietor up to his eyes in business Mr Anderson has by his firm integrity and upright business principles, built up an extensive trade His store is well filled with a large assortment of goods, all of which are arranged in a systematic order The MINER'S best wishes follow Mr Anderson in his business career

—When a man is through his day's work and is sitting down resting at home he cannot read the advertisements on the fence and the handbills and circulars that were left on his doorstep have blown away or were destroyed, He calls for the paper and there he finds the merchant's announcement, and with nothing to bother him he reads it carefully, and then he calls his wife's attention to it, and they decide to go to the merchant's store and examine what is advertised.—Ex

—Frank Wright informed us on Tuesday night that one of his friends up the creek (he did not say which creek) had his life endangered by an attack from a large deer, and it was only after a protracted battle with the deer that he escaped with his life. He brought the dangerous animal down and presented it to Mr Wright. It is strange how bold deer are at certain seasons of the year. A month later they would not assault a person, much less endanger his life. At the next G A R meeting Frank will sport a new bucktail.

Mrs. P. E. Cotter returned from Indiana a few days since where she had been taking care of her son, John. Since her return she has been taken with typhoid fever. Dr. Balfour informs us there is nothing dangerous about the case.

Messrs. Smith and Boyd, of Clermont, recently purchased in Buffalo a fine driving team. On Thursday they drove to the hub with their spanking bays and were very proud of them. And they have reason to be, for the horses are fine and good residents.

T. H. Fertle and John Reilly rode over to Olean on Saturday to see and hear David B. Hill. Tom says that the Olean people made a mistake in not providing for the accommodation of the Pennsylvania delegates, even if they had to drive the women from the hall to do so.

The Mt. Jewett correspondent to Kane Republican says "Stephen McCoy, of Smethport, has been the guest of his nephew, E. B. McCoy, and last Sunday took a drive over to Kane. Miss Mattie Brennan is over from Smethport, the guest of her brother, Henry, and sister, Mrs. M J Gallup."

Mrs. T A. Morrison, Mrs. Warley Gifford, Miss May Choate, P D Hopkins, W F Specht, John Ganey, H M Choate, Arthur Mitchell, Miss Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire and daughter started for Buffalo Thursday morning the greater portion eager to hear the great McKinley speak

Mr and Mrs. Breneman entertained several of their friends on Monday night. Dr McCoy and Mr Floyd sang some beautiful pieces, Miss Hattie Eaton recited, and taken all in all, it was a very enjoyable evening The "Larboard Watch," as rendered by the above gentlemen, was highly appreciated and elicited well merited applause

The Smethport Athletic Club.

At the meeting held for the organization of an athletic club Monday evening, a temporary organization was made with J W Bouton, Esq., chairman, and S F Bell, secretary. A motion that the chairman should appoint a committee for the purpose of ascertaining the annual expense of a club, including rooms and fixtures, and the number of persons willing to pay an initiation fee of $5 00 and 50 cents per month dues was made and carried The chairman appointed Messrs. Backer, Bell and Holmes on this committee

On motion a committee consisting of H M Choate J E Mullin and Dr John Clark was appointed by the chairman to draft a set of by-laws to be presented at the next meeting The meeting then adjourned to meet at the grand jury room in the court house at 8 o'clock next Monday evening An agreement to pay $5 00 initiation fee and 50 cents per month dues was drawn up to be circulated by the committee and was signed by 27 persons before they left the meeting It now looks as though the Smethport Athletic Club will be a living organization

Attempted Highway Robbery

Friday night just after dark as H S Adams was driving into town from his farm, where he had been on a delivering trip, and just outside the borough limits two men sprang into the road and commanded him to halt. He refused to do so and started his horses on the run to get away from the desperadoes, when they began to shoot at him, one ball of goodly size just grazing the scalp and glanced upward, going through his hat With this narrow escape he got away from his would-be-murderers and arrived in town a few minutes later, feeling thankful that no more injury was done than getting a hole through his hat.

Mr Adams is a new comer to town, having just started in business on the West Side and this is rather a warm reception —Kane Republican.

To the Citizens of McKean County.

Smethport, Pa., October 22, 1894

You are cordially invited to be present at the Court House, in Smethport on Tuesday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock, to assist in celebrating the freeing of the Soldier's Monument from the debt that has so long stood against it

There will be music and speaking by some of McKean county's most eloquent citizens. The exercises will be of the nature of a camp-fire and we hope to furnish you a pleasant evening's entertainment.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure Send for circulars free

LITERARY NOTES.

A BEAUTIFUL velvet cape and a Virot hat, in Sambo's finest style a charming house gown, and an elegant calling costume are the distinguishing points in fashion of Harper's Bazar for October 20th. Among literary features the most noteworthy are a portrait and sketch of Agnes Irwin, the new Dean of Radcliffe College, and a sketch (also with portrait) of Louise Imogen Guiney, by Harriett Prescott Spofford, a portrait of Dr O W Holmes, and a page devoted to the famous song "Ben Bolt"—which like other things affectionately touched in Trilby, has the fairest immortality

Marvelous Results

From a letter written by Rev J Gunderman of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding la grippe Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr King's New Discovery, it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at F E Foster's, and A B Armstrong & Co.'s drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

PORT ALLEGANY.

After a long and energetic struggle of nearly three months with typhoid fever, our esteemed fellow townsman, Isaac Goding, succumbed to the ravages of the disease and departed this life at 11 a m Friday last. The funeral was held at the family residence on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. S. T. Irwin officiating. A large circle of mourning relatives and friends were present, their sorrowful faces and fast falling tears attesting their esteem and love for the departed one The interment was in the village cemetery where he is resting quietly side by side with two small children who had passed on before. His sorrowing family have the heart felt sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

Prof C. B Kelley of our graded school, left here on Wednesday of last week for Williamsport, where he took unto himself a wife. Almost Blind

Inflamed Eyes and Running Sores

The Success of Hood's Causes Great Rejoicing—A Perfect Cure.

Miss Cora B. Ebert
Barnesville, Pa.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I feel it a duty to state what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was almost blind, being compelled to stay in a darkened room on account of inflammation of the eyes. I also suffered with running sores on my body. I was in terrible condition. My mother tried everything she knew about and I was attended by two doctors but without helping me. Finally Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I had not taken two bottles before I began to get better The inflammation left my eyes and the sores healed, and the result was that

and was restored to perfect health. At that time I was only twelve years old; now I am nineteen and I have not since been troubled

MRS. T. D. NASH.

Smethport, Pa., Aug. 30, 1894.

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

PURSUANT TO AN ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA ENTITLED "AN ACT TO REGULATE THE NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF PUBLIC OFFICERS, REQUIRING CERTAIN EXPENSES INCIDENT THERETO TO BE PAID BY THE SEVERAL COUNTIES AND PUNISHING CERTAIN OFFENCES AGAINST THE SAME," APPROVED THE 30th DAY OF JUNE A. D. 1874, I, A. B. Walker, High Sheriff of the County of McKean, do hereby make known and proclaim to the qualified electors of McKean County that at the General Election to be held in the said County of McKean on TUESDAY, the 6th day of November A. D. 1894, (being the Tuesday next after the first Monday of said month), there will be elected the following officers, viz:

One person for Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
One person for Secretary of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
One person for Representative at Large in Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
One person for Representative in Congress from the 25th District of Pennsylvania.
Two persons for Representatives in the General Assembly from McKean County.
One person for Coroner of the County of McKean.
One person for Jury Commissioner of the County of McKean.

And I do hereby further make known and proclaim that the following is a correct list of the nominations of the respective political conventions, certified as far as the same can be in the form in which they appear upon the ballot to be used.

A cross (X) marked in the square at the right of the name of each candidate, inside the line enclosing the column indicates a vote for each candidate thus marked. If a cross (X) be marked within the circle it will be equivalent to a mark opposite every name in the column. Those who do not desire to vote a straight ticket must not mark a cross within the circle at the head of column.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of November, A. D. 1894.

A. B. WALKER, Sheriff.

FROM A PRESIDENTIAL ORGAN

Our Democratic contemporaries have upon more than one occasion during this campaign reproduced from the columns of the Philadelphia Ledger one of Mr. Horace Greeley's journalistic statements supposed to furnish some excuse for the condition into which the country has been thrown by the workers of prosperity through the free trade work. The Ledger they have claimed ought to be believed, but their quotations from it in the interests of the cause have been in the telegraphic columns and were the product alone of correspondents. We reproduce here today a paragraph from the financial column of The Ledger of last Saturday. The Ledger says:

Politics in this country are so intimately related to business that any upheaval in the former is bound to affect the condition of the latter. The present depression in business dates from the triumph of the Democratic party in 1892. To discuss why this is so would be to enter upon an inappropriate discussion of a question of partisan politics. But briefly the fact is that it did follow that election and was increased and prolonged by the inability of the party in power to force to an early vote the issues of silver repeal and the tariff. Now business will probably revive and public confidence grow in strength whatever may be the result of the coming November election. In fact it had already begun to improve long before the political campaign was opened but there can be no question whatever that there is a prevailing belief that if the results of the election is a reversal of the decision made in 1892 the process toward improvement will be greatly accelerated. Republican victories are depended upon therefore to usher in a period of reaction and recovery. This is largely due to the belief that a Republican congress will mean a respite from further tariff changes for at least two years.

As has been explained by ex-Speaker Reed who is competent to speak for the Republican party a Republican congress, whatever it might like to do, would be prevented by a Democratic president from putting any radical change in the tariff into law. If, therefore the result of the coming election is a Republican victory it ought to mean rest for the manufacturer and merchant and this should have an inspiring effect on business. With the benefit of this two years' rest perhaps business men may then be glad to indicate their preference for one or the other policies of tariff legislation, and be willing to have the present law improved or a new law enacted. A Democratic victory in November might not result in further tariff agitation, but there would be no certainty of this, for the president and a large section of his party have declared their dissatisfaction with the new law. The president even refused to attach his name to it, and it is regarded by tariff reformers only as a step toward genuine tariff reform."

"Discount and Democracy" coming at the same time is an unparalleled calamity," writes a farmer from Farmington, Pa.

CHEAP GOODS AND CHEAP MEN

The greatest of the United States, in his annual message to congress talks very sibly about the reduced price of goods compensation, if any reduction of wages which might be brought about by his tariff policy. And this is to a great extent the attack in trial of the free trade theories.

Oh yes. Cheap goods and cheap products of the workshop and the farm are the things to make men happy and contented with their lot in life. We deny it utterly. Adults with no one depending upon them may be satisfied with a bare living. But the wage worker, the toiler in summer's lassitude and winter's frosts and snows wants more than a living. He wants something for old age—something for his children. Besides being fed and clothed they want books and pens and ink and paper and pencil. They want an education with which to fight life's battle.

Go talk to the toilers in the iron hills and coal mountains in Pennsylvania and Virginia, of the bituminous coal deposits of the great west about the advantages of cheap food and cheap clothing and cheap cotton stuffs of every description and they will tell you very quickly that what they want is steady employment and good wages and they will take care of the food and clothing part of this whole business.

We are opposed to cheap goods and cheap agricultural products. Cheap goods and cheap products mean cheap labor—starvation wages for toiling slaves, without hope and without ambition for the future. Huts and hovels and nakedness and pauperism and crime follow sadly after the procession of cheap labor. The greatest advantage of protection however is to be seen in the condition of labor under its mantle. Wages are not only higher than in England, Italy, Hungary, Poland and other free trade or semi free trade countries but the condition of the laborer is infinitely more bearable and hopeful. He may live comfortably and respected, and he may educate his children and expect them to become worthy useful and leading citizens. They are eligible to all offices under the government, capable of any business, enterprise and may build any social position. This state of things exists only when protection is general and it is that only in the United States. Goods are cheap in Italy, in Hungary and in Poland, but labor is cheaper and the laborer cannot buy. The laboring man emigrates from free trade countries to protective ones, not from protective countries to free trade ones. Cheap labor is a national curse. Nay more it is barbarism itself. Ill paid labor means a degraded standard of life. Therefore, well paid labor and its attendant consequences are to be desired and are not to be feared. The cost of living is reduced to a common factor. The price fixes the condition. Barbarism is the condition.

THE old soldiers' pensions were cut down by almost $80,000,000 during the last session of the Democratic congress.
